

GFT 2022 – Uncover the New Pattern of Success in the Digital Age

Create a new pattern of success for your garment and textile industries in the digital age at GFT 2022 under the theme of The New Pattern of Success through the latest technologies— from automatic sewing, printing, and embroidering, to functional textile and OEM services — from over 150 international brands, and take part in a variety of business-enhancing activities:

- My Style Zone – discover high-quality suppliers who will create every order for your brand.
- Functional Showcase - explore innovative textiles with a variety of special properties.
- GFT Forum – attend seminars on the developing trends of the textile and garment industries to help you formulate efficient business strategies for success.

This is the year's most significant event to embellish your business along with 10,000 manufacturers, designers, and startups under strict preventive measures so you can visit the show with a peace of mind. Easily pre-register online today to get on top of all the latest show movements at www.gftexpo.com or follow us on Facebook Page at www.facebook.com/gftpage and get all the updates to keep your business in the limelight.

See you this 22-25 June at BITEC, Bangkok!