Just a few more minutes...

There's still a few minutes left, and then here we go again! Ok, maybe it's a little longer than that - starting from 1 September it's a good 5,000 hours or a little over 300,000 minutes until h+h cologne opens its doors. In other words, on 31 March 2023 it will be showtime once more. h+h cologne will turn Cologne into the international meeting point of the textile handicraft industry.

This much is already clear: All the big names in the industry will return to Cologne. Those who have already registered include Amann Mettler, Acufactum, Albstoffe, AYB Hislabor, Brother, Burda, Canan, Clover, Consorcio Premax, Baby Lock, De Bondt, Dill Knopffabrik, Ferd. Schmetz, Fil Katia SA, Firma Max Gründl, Kleiber, Knitpro, Knittingfever, Freudenberg, Frechverlag, G. Brouwer, Gustav Selter, Gütermann, Lana Grossa, Lang Yarns, Langedorf & Keller, Leop. Belousek, Lillesol & Pelle, Madeira, Malabrigo Yarn, MEZ, Novita, Organ Needle, Plus H, Prym, Quality Textile, Rico Design, Riolis, Scheffer & Wiggers, Schoeller Handstrickgarne, Swafing, Tinturaria Rosarios, Tropical Lane, Veno, Verhees and many more.

h+h cologne 2023: creative and unique

As the world's largest ordering platform of its kind, the international trade fair for creative handicraft & hobby supplies presents a comprehensive range of innovations in sewing, crocheting, knitting, embroidery and handicrafts. h+h also offers a first-class event and workshop programme that is geared to the needs of the trade, highlights the diversity of the industry and provides trade visitors from all over the world with a constant source of new ideas for their future business success.

The motto sums up everything that will take place from 31 March to 2 April 2023 on the stage and at the trade fair stands: "Be creative. Be unique." It includes how you can optimise your business and gain a competitive edge through uniqueness, which creative ideas make the handicrafts industry innovative time after time and how "uniqueness" with its good arguments can beat "fast fashion." In short, it will be colourful, creative and individual. And that is certainly something to look forward to in these times. Like we said, just a couple more minutes and then we're ready to go...
